

Wisconsin on September 22. They had the opportunity to hear Bob Woodward, investigative reporter for the Washington Post, give a talk on his part in exposing the Watergate Scandal and on the present state and future of American journalism.

Out of a class of 246 students, 150 seniors took the Strong - Campbell Interest Inventory.

An exhibit of Miss Estherly Allen's artwork is being held at the Concordia College Fine Arts Galleries located at 3109 W. Highland Blvd., Milwaukee thru November 5. Show hours are from 2:00 P.M. to 4:30 P.M.

Students interested in forming a Bible Study Group, which would informally discuss scripture, should contact either Mr. Greenwald or senior Dan Smith.

The MUHS Astronomy Club, moderated by Mr. James Greenwald, is a great starting point for students and faculty interested in astronomy. Several magazines, such as Sky and Telescope and Astronomy, and over thirty books on subjects ranging from telescope building to stellar evolution are available in room 211. Members may check out any of several 3-3 1/2" reflecting telescopes.

Photo by Dan Makros

Skateboarding: An Olympic Sport in the future?

The Astronomy Club observes a solar eclipse from the parking lot.

Photo by Nick Glorioso

Dining Out... with the Flambeau

By Bob Beck and Mark Griffin

The purpose of this feature is to introduce Marquette High students to some restaurants in the Milwaukee area for consideration, in light of Homecoming and other social activities.

Anchorage

Address: Located on North Port Washington Road, immediately after the Hampton exit of I-43.

Prices: Rather high, but this is mitigated by the exquisite gourmet cuisine. Examples: Many types of sea food; desserts such as chocolate mousse for approximately $1.50.

Dinners Include: Generous portion of the entree, bread and butter, appetizer and various other appropriate side dishes.

Atmosphere: Located on the scenic Milwaukee River with a beautiful dining area; includes fireplace and various maritime relics.

General Comments: An excellent restaurant for formal dining, an enjoyable experience well worth the price.

Au Naturel

Address: 316 West Juneau Avenue, in the Sydney High Arts and Crafts Complex.

Prices: Dinners average around $4.00.

Examples: Chef's Salad, $3.75. Garden Pizza, $4.25.

Dinners Include: Appetizer, homemade soup, choice of vegetable or house salad with herbal, sour cream, or Tahini dressing.

Atmosphere: Located in the heart of Milwaukee, good for interesting, informal dining.

General Comments: An interesting experience for an adventurous couple or for all natural food lovers.

Gritz'z Pzazz Seafood and Steakhouse

Address: 5401 W. Good Hope Road.

Prices: Average dinner $7.00. Examples: Chateaubriand for two, $18.00, Red Snapper, $6.50, Prime Rib, $8.00.

Dinners Include: Lazy susan, salad, baked, cottage fried, or hash brown potatoes, fresh bread and butter, and palate pacifier (mini sherbet cone).

Atmosphere: "A pleasant place to dine, handsome place setting, sparkling goblets lit by candle light at your table" - Alex Thien.

General Comments: A good restaurant for people on the northwest side.

Sherlock Holmes

Address: First floor of the Marine Plaza, entrance on Water Street.

Prices: Moderate, average dinner approximately $6.50.

Atmosphere: Superior, done in Victorian England style, Sherlock Holmes memorabilia everywhere, high-backed English styled leather chairs, crushed velvet curtains.

General Comments: A new restaurant which is worth considering.

Smith Brothers' "Fish Shanty" Restaurant

Address: Port Washington, Wisconsin on highway 141 to 32, 25 miles north of Milwaukee.

Prices: The menu consists of Planked fish, Cold fresh water fish, and a section which is devoted to land lubber. The prices are reasonable; they range from $1.95 for a beef-burger plate to $13.95 for South African lobster tail. Average price for a dinner is between 6 and 7 dollars. Waistliners are also featured.

Dinners Include: appetizer plate, garlic bread, roll/butter, crackers, soup, and a choice of potato.

Atmosphere: Located on Lake Michigan, at Port Washington; its nautical motif and cheery atmosphere are superior.

General Comments: An excellent restaurant, although a bit far North of Milwaukee.